

Competition Section 1st International Antitrust Conference 2021

Speaker biographies

In alphabetical order by first name, including session chairs

The Law
Society

Dr Adrian Majumdar, Partner, RBB Economics

Prior to taking his post at RBB, Adrian was the Deputy Director of Economics (spending 6 months as acting Chief Economist) at the UK competition authority, the Office of Fair Trading (OFT), now part of the Competition and Markets Authority.

Adrian is referenced in Who's Who as "an undisputable leader in the field" and "one of the absolute best" when it comes to complex investigations work, topping the rankings for EMEA economists in 2019.

Adrian has advised on some of the leading competition law cases in Europe, including Intel (for AMD) and Post Danmark II. His experience includes many Phase II mergers and other matters before the European Commission and national competition authorities around the world. Adrian has also provided expert testimony under cross examination and in the 'hot tub' before the UK Competition Appeal Tribunal and other courts.

Adrian is a co-author of the textbook, UK Merger Control, 2016 and several research papers published by the UK competition authorities, covering selective price cuts and fidelity rebates, buyer groups, cost pass-through, and consumer savings from competition policy. While at the OFT, Adrian was the principal author of the Competition Act guidelines on Market Definition and the Assessment of Market Power.

Aik Kor Sia, Aik Kor Sia, Chief Executive, Competition and Consumer Commission of Singapore

Aik Kor is the Chief Executive and a Commissioner of the Competition & Consumer Commission of Singapore.

Aik Kor has served in various positions in the public sector, including as a Justices' Law Clerk to the Chief Justice and Judges of the Supreme Court, Assistant Registrar at the Supreme Court, Deputy Public Prosecutor, District Judge of the Subordinate Courts, and the Official Assignee & Public Trustee at the Insolvency and Public Trustee's Office at the Ministry of Law. From 2005 to 2010, Aik Kor was seconded to then Competition Commission of Singapore, where she served as its first Director (Legal & Enforcement).

Aik Kor read law at the London School of Economics and Political Science, University of London and holds a Masters of Law from Harvard Law School.

The professional body for solicitors

The Law
Society

Anna Morfey, Partner, Hausfeld

Anna Morfey is a solicitor-advocate whose practice focuses on all aspects of contentious EU and competition law. Anna has a wealth of experience in European and domestic antitrust investigations, follow-on and stand-alone damages claims, injunctions and merger transactions. Her current and recent cases include acting for a number of corporate clients in damages claims against the Trucks cartel, acting for a major energy supplier in damages claims against Prysmian further to the High Voltage Power Cables cartel, acting for clients in damages claims against the Automotive Bearings and Polyurethane Foam cartels, and on several collective actions filed and to be filed in the CAT. Anna also acted for the original complainant in the Google Shopping case intervening in support of the European Commission in Google's appeal to the General Court. Prior to joining Hausfeld, Anna worked for two Magic Circle firms in Brussels and London specialising in antitrust investigations and defending cartel damages claims, as well as representing complainants in the extensive abuse of dominance cases into Microsoft conducted by the EC, and General Court appeals, in the 2000s.

Anneli Howard QC, Barrister, Monckton Chambers

Anneli Howard is top-ranked by Chambers, Legal 500 and Who's Who in six different disciplines: Competition, EU law, Consumer law/Product Liability, Public Administrative law, Aviation and Telecommunications. In 2018 Anneli won The Legal 500 award for EU/Competition Junior of the Year and was one of the Lawyer's "Hot 100" in 2016. From 2005 to 2021, Anneli was a member of the AG Panels for Public Administrative law and WTO/International Trade.

The professional body for solicitors

Barry O'Donnell, Senior Economist, Competition and Consumer Protection Commission

Barry is a senior economist in the Competition Enforcement and Mergers Division of the CCPC, where he has 15 years' experience working on merger review.

Becket McGrath, Partner, Euclid Law

Becket advises clients on all aspects of EU and UK competition law, with an emphasis on defending companies against investigations, distribution issues and merger control. Although he advises clients in a broad range of sectors, he has a particular interest in the media, technology and life sciences sectors. This interest extends to the growing importance of public interest and foreign investment reviews for these sectors. He is a leading expert on distribution issues raised by e-commerce, including in the context of selective distribution, and has advised major online retailers, marketplaces and brands on a wide range of strategic competition issues.

Becket has worked in both London and Brussels during his career and is qualified as an English solicitor and Belgian advocaat. He has experience of enforcing UK and EU competition law at a senior level in the UK's Office of Fair Trading (now the Competition and Markets Authority) and retains good links with enforcement agencies and regulators in the UK and across the EU. Becket was previously featured in GCR's '40 under 40' feature and is listed in the latest Who's Who Legal/Global Competition Review directory of leading competition lawyers.

The Law
Society

Brendan Fee, Partner, Morgan Lewis

Brendan Fee leads the firm's Philadelphia antitrust practice and represents market-leading US and international companies in complex, high-stakes antitrust lawsuits. These disputes often involve alleged price fixing, market allocation, exclusive dealing, monopolization, group boycotts, price discrimination, tying, bundling, standards development, and other alleged violations of federal and state antitrust law.

Carole Begent, General Counsel, PSR

Carole is the PSR's General Counsel and Head of Regulatory and Competition Enforcement and a member of the PSR's executive team inputting on the PSR's policy approach. She oversees antitrust and regulatory enforcement case work and the PSR's role in respect of the Interchange Fee Regulation. Recent casework of the PSR includes the CA98 case involving pre-paid cards.

Previously she was Senior Legal Director, Mergers, Markets and Regulatory Appeals at the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) Between March 2000 and March 2014 Carole was Deputy Chief Legal Adviser and Head of International at the Competition Commission (CC). She led the successful defense of CC decisions, including appeals by BAA, Ryanair and BSKyB to Court of Appeal. Earlier experience includes secondment to the Department for Transport in 2009 as Head of Railway Infrastructure and Safety Legal Division; and legal and policy roles at OFWAT and ORR.

The professional body for solicitors

The Law
Society

Chris Pike, Managing Director, Head of Digital Markets, Fideres

Chris joined Fideres in 2021. Before joining Fideres, Chris worked as a Competition Expert for the OECD where he led the economic thinking on antitrust and regulation within digital markets, as well the role for competition law & policy in delivering inclusivity. He also led a working party of the OECD Competition Committee in developing a new international standard on competitive neutrality and a revision of the standard on competitive assessment (in light of the digitalization of the economy). Prior to the OECD, Chris advised the UK government's Department of Trade & Industry on the benefits of competition policy, and the UK Competition Commission (predecessor to the Competition and Markets Authority) on digital mergers, retail market investigations and competition cases. He was an advisor to the Co-operation and Competition Panel, where he advised on mergers, market studies and antitrust in publicly-funded healthcare markets, and later became Director of Competition Economics at the UK Healthcare Regulator. Chris holds a PhD, an MA and BA in Economics from the University of East Anglia where he was a founding member of the Centre for Competition Policy. He remains an associate of the Centre, a member of various advisory boards at non-profit making organizations, and peer reviews papers for the Journal of Competition Law and Economics & the Journal of Antitrust Enforcement.

The professional body for solicitors

The Law
Society

Claire Jeffs, Partner, Slaughter and May

Claire is Co-Chair of the Competition Group globally and works in Slaughter and May's Brussels and London offices.

Claire has extensive experience of both EU and UK competition law. She has been involved in a large number of high-profile merger cases before the EU and UK competition authorities, as well as coordinating merger approvals worldwide. On the contentious side, she has been involved in many cartel and other behavioural cases, including on appeal to the General Court in Luxembourg.

Highlights include advising:

- Vodafone on its acquisition of parts of Liberty Global
- Shire on its takeover by Takeda
- Google in relation to the European Commission's antitrust investigation into allegations that certain of its business practices in the search and advertising sectors violate European competition rules.

Cristina Caffara, Senior Consultant, European Competition, Charles River Associates

Dr Cristina Caffarra is an expert in competition economics who has led for several years the antitrust and regulatory team at Charles River Associates in Europe. She has directed economic analyses in multiple competition investigations on some of the landmark mergers and antitrust matters of the past 20 years, before the EC and the competition agencies of the UK, multiple Member States, and across the globe. She has provided expert economic evidence in multiple litigated cases before the courts (from the General Court in Luxembourg to the High Court and the Competition Appeal Tribunal in London, and many more). She has advised both corporate clients and government enforcers in multiple cases concerning digital companies, media, telecoms, and more.

The professional body for solicitors

The Law
Society

Davina Garrod, Partner - EU/UK Competition and Regulatory Group, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP

Davina Garrod is recognized by Legal 500 for her “encyclopedic understanding of competition and merger control laws” and her “in-depth understanding of the regulatory landscape in markets.” She advises multinationals, corporates, financial institutions and trade associations on mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic alliances and restructurings.

With more than 24 years’ experience, in addition to conducting multijurisdictional merger control analyses, navigating and obtaining antitrust and regulatory approvals for complex transactions within and outside of the EU, and negotiating remedies packages, Davina represents leading sovereign wealth funds, private equity (PE) firms, global institutional asset managers and banks in the context of their strategic and financial investments (transactional and contentious).

Dirk Middelschulte, Global General Counsel, Unilever

Dirk Middelschulte has been Global General Counsel Competition at Unilever, based in Brussels, since 2017. He started his career in private practice before joining Deutsche Bahn AG at its headquarters in Berlin in 2006 as in-house counsel for IP, regulatory and competition law and led the group’s antitrust advice & compliance team from 2010 onwards. Dirk moved to Danone in Paris in 2015 as Global Compliance Director, prior to joining Unilever. He holds a doctorate in law from the University of Mainz and acts as a non-governmental advisor to the European Commission in the International Competition Network.

The professional body for solicitors

Inge Bernaerts, Director for Strategy and Policy in the Competition Directorate General, European Commission

Inge Bernaerts is Director for Strategy and Policy in the Competition Directorate General of the European Commission since August 2020. Prior to that, she held management positions in the Energy Directorate General of the Commission and was Head of Cabinet to Marianne Thyssen, Commissioner for Employment, Social Affairs, Skills and Labour Mobility in the Juncker Commission. Between 2003 and 2010, Inge worked as case handler in antitrust and state aids and as Assistant to the Directorate General for Competition. Before joining the Commission, she practiced competition law at the Brussels bar with Stibbe Simont Monahan Duhot and Freshfields Bruckhaus Derringer and she lectured European law seminars at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven. Inge holds a law degree from the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and a post-graduate degree in European law from the Universität Saarbrücken. She is married and has two sons.

Professor Ioannis Kokkoris, Professor of Competition Law and Economics; Dean for International, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Queen Mary University of London

Professor Ioannis Kokkoris holds a Chair in Competition Law and Economics at the Centre for Commercial Law Studies, Queen Mary University of London, UK. He is also the Dean for International for the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Professor Kokkoris is an expert on competition law and economics. His main research interests span all areas of competition law and policy including comparative competition law/economics and policy focusing on EU, US, BRICS and ASEAN. Professor Kokkoris has formerly served at the UK Competition and Markets Authority, DG Competition, European Commission and US Federal Trade Commission. Professor Kokkoris has led and worked on funded projects by the European Commission, the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the World Bank, the OECD, the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe and other international institutions. He is a special advisor to a number of competition authorities globally and frequently advises companies on competition enforcement issues in a number of jurisdictions.

Isolde Goggin, Chairperson, Irish Competition and Consumer Protection Commission

Isolde Goggin is the Chairperson of the CCPC. Isolde was originally appointed a Member of the Competition Authority in July 2010, and in October 2011 she was then appointed Chair of the Authority and designate chair of the CCPC.

Previous to this she was Commissioner and then Chairperson of Ireland's Commission for Communications Regulation.

Before joining ComReg, Isolde was Director of the Regulated Markets Division at the Competition Authority. She began her career in with Eircom as an engineer, and later moved into business management and then regulation, working with Eircom, DG Information Society of the European Commission and Ericsson.

Isolde holds a First Class Honours engineering degree, a Master's in Business Administration, a Postgraduate Diploma in European Competition Law, and is a Fellow of the Institution of Engineers of Ireland.

James Marshall, Partner, Covington and Chair, Competition Section

James Marshall advises on all aspects of competition law and sector regulation and regularly counsels clients on merger control, investigations and enforcement, commercial deals, abuse of dominance, sector regulation, and compliance. Earlier in his career, James worked with the UK Competition and Markets Authority (CMA), where he helped develop the UK's antitrust and regulated sector enforcement regimes. Clients turn to James to help them find innovative solutions to complex antitrust enforcement, merger and counselling matters, particularly in regulated sectors.

James represents clients before UK, EU, and global regulators across a number of industries and has particular expertise in the infrastructure, energy, transport and utilities sectors. He has also advised on numerous complex global financial services cases, and has strong experience advising in the consumer, digital, communications, and sports sectors.

John Davies, Executive Vice President, Compass Lexecon

At Compass Lexecon, John has advised clients on a wide range of competition matters, with a particular focus on pharmaceuticals and the tech sector. He has advised on Phase I merger investigations by the UK CMA and DG Competition, as well as Phase II mergers in Brussels. He has advised clients both defending against and bringing claims of abuse of dominance in the UK and Brussels and is an expert witness in follow-on claims arising from the E.C. power cables cartel case. He was also co-author of a major report on the competitive effects of standard-setting organizations. He is joint head of Compass Lexecon's London office.

John Fingleton, Founder and CEO, Fingleton

John Fingleton is the Founder and CEO of Fingleton, which helps business leaders and investors in all sectors expertly navigate strategic regulatory issues. He previously ran both the UK Office of Fair Trading (now the Competition and Market Authority), and the Irish Competition Authority. He also chaired the International Competition Network. Please let us know if anything more is needed.

Jonathan Scott, Chair and Non-Executive Director, Competition and Markets Authority

Jonathan was appointed Non-Executive Director of the Competition and Markets Authority Board on 1 October 2016 and as Chair on 9 October 2020. He is also a Non-Executive member of the Press and Assessment Board of the University of Cambridge, the Chairman of Governors of The Perse School in Cambridge and the Chairman of The Remuneration Committee of St Catharine's College Cambridge. Previous career highlights include:

- Setting up the Brussels office of Herbert Smith and subsequently leading the competition group for 12 years

Senior Partner and Chair of Herbert Smith and post-merger, Herbert Smith Freehills, a leading global law firm. He led the firm's European Union and Competition practice until 2007 and has chaired the firm's Global Partnership Council, responsible for management and strategic decisions since 2010. He retired as Chair and as a partner in 2015.

Joseph Bell, Partner, Oxera

Joseph is an expert adviser in the field of competition litigation, with extensive experience providing economic analysis for both Claimants and Defendants. He currently heads Oxera's follow-on anti-trust damages practice in the UK, with a focus on collective actions. Joseph has led economic analyses in relation to a wide range of competition matters including cartels, information exchange, and abuses of a dominant position.

He has a particular specialism in matters that require the application of empirical analysis to assess underlying competition issues or harms. A qualified accountant as well as an economist, Joseph frequently leads Oxera teams that combine econometric and financial analysis in evaluating the competitive effects of disputed conduct. In this capacity, Joseph has led projects providing evidence to competition authorities (including the CMA and the European Commission) and national courts in the UK, Spain, Sweden and the Netherlands. He has experience of providing expert testimony in the UK and to the European Commission and regularly contributes to Oxera's EU-sponsored courses on the quantification of competition damages for member state judges.

Providing advice across a wide range of industry sectors, Joseph has particular experience working in the fields of payments services and telecoms. Prior to joining Oxera, Joseph worked in BT Group's finance division and conducted a research project at the Bank of England.

The Law
Society

Keith Jones, Partner, Baker McKenzie and vice-chair, Competition Section

Keith Jones co-heads the EU, Competition & Trade Practice Group of Baker McKenzie's London office and has extensive experience in UK and EU competition law. He is a member of Baker McKenzie's Competition team and Competition Litigation Unit. Keith has published a number of articles on competition litigation and is co-author of the Competition Litigation, Europe.

Luisa Affuso, Chief Economist, Ofcom

Luisa is Ofcom's Chief Economist. She is a member of the Executive Board and Head of the Economics Group- a group of over 80 economists who help to ensure Ofcom's decisions are underpinned by expert economic analysis.

Luisa has over twenty years of experience in the application of competition, regulatory, and industrial economics. Her main area of expertise is the application of economic and econometric analysis to complex competition and regulatory questions. She has advised on a large number of cases including mergers, abuse of dominance and restrictive horizontal and vertical agreements, as well as damages litigation from antitrust infringements, market studies and market investigations, and State aid.

Marcus Bezzi, Executive General Manager, Australian Competition & Consumer Commission

Marcus has been an Executive General Manager at the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) since early 2009. He is responsible for the ACCC's Specialized Enforcement & Advocacy Division; this division enforces cartel laws, manages the ACCC's International engagement, coordinates the ACCC advocacy network and runs the ACCC intelligence unit. It also has responsibility for the ACCC's work in units established to focus on substantial lessening of competition, agriculture, commercial construction and financial services.

Marcus has a background as a government and private sector lawyer. He was General Counsel at the ACMA for three years and a Senior Executive Lawyer at the Australian Government Solicitor for ten years.

The professional body for solicitors

Margaret Kyle, Chair in Intellectual Property and Markets for Technology, MINES ParisTech

Margaret Kyle is a noted authority on competition and intellectual property in the pharmaceutical industry. Her research includes the role of geographic and academic spillovers in R&D productivity, firm-specific and policy determinants of the distribution of new products, and competition from generic drugs. Women@Competition named Professor Kyle among forty notable women competition professionals in their forties.

In her recent work, Professor Kyle has examined the impact of trade and intellectual property policies on R&D investment and competition. In the context of COVID-19, she has analyzed how incentives can promote the development of new medical technologies and advance the rapid manufacture of tests and treatments.

Martijn Snoep, Chairman, Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets (ACM)

Since September 1, 2018, Martijn Snoep has been the Chairman of the Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets (ACM). Mr. Snoep obtained his law degree from Erasmus University Rotterdam. Until his appointment at ACM, he worked at De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek for 28 years. Operating from both their Amsterdam and Brussels locations, Mr. Snoep gave advice to businesses about the application of competition law in the Netherlands and abroad. As managing partner, he stood at the helm of the firm between 2010 and 2016.

Masaru Ogo, Deputy Secretary General for International Affairs, Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC)

Masaru Ogo is the Deputy Secretary General for International Affairs of the Japan Fair Trade Commission. He took this position in July 2020. After joining the JFTC in 1992, he has served in various important positions in the JFTC and accumulated distinct experiences, especially in the investigation arena, including as Director of Investigation Division V, Director of Special Investigation Division and Director of Management and Planning Division in the Investigation Bureau. He also served as First Secretary at the Permanent Delegation of Japan to OECD from 2000 to 2004.

Matt Evans, Partner, Jones Day

Matt Evans is recognized as a leading adviser on UK and EU competition law, focusing on both merger control and behavioural matters. On transactions, he represents clients before the Competition and Markets Authority and European Commission to obtain regulatory clearance for mergers and acquisitions and joint ventures. On the behavioural side, Matt advises on investigations into anticompetitive agreements and practices, including cartels and supply arrangements, market investigations, abuses of dominant position and subsidy controls. He has extensive experience advising clients on e-commerce, in particular on structuring brand owners' distribution arrangements. He works with clients in a range of sectors, including energy, healthcare, telecoms, technology, music, betting and gaming, fast moving consumer goods and real estate.

Matt has authored or co-authored numerous articles, including more recently the implications of Brexit for M&A deals and the rights of the UK government to review and block acquisitions of businesses trading in the UK and raising public interest concerns. Matt was the 2019-2020 Chair of the Competition Section committee of the Law Society of England & Wales.

The Law
Society

Dr. Michael Grenfell, Executive Director
Enforcement, Competition and Markets Authority

Dr Michael Grenfell is an Executive Director on the Board of the Competition and Markets Authority – the UK's primary competition and consumer agency – where he is responsible for enforcement of competition and consumer laws. He joined the CMA in January 2014, where he was initially a Senior Director for competition in the regulated sectors, before moving to his current position in July 2015. Before he joined the CMA, he was a solicitor in private practice for 25 years, specialising in UK and EU competition law and sector regulation, including, from 1998 to 2013, as a Partner at the international law firm Norton Rose Fulbright. He has written and broadcast widely on competition, regulatory and consumer issues, and was co-author of Coleman and Grenfell on The Competition Act 1998 (OUP). He has an M.A. in history and law from Cambridge University, and a Ph.D in political thought from the London School of Economics.

Nigel Seay, Partner, Head of Competition, Travers
Smith LLP

Nigel is the head of the Travers Smith LLP Competition Group. Nigel advises on UK, EU and multi-jurisdictional merger control matters, as well as the full range of behavioural UK and EU competition law matters. Nigel also has a significant competition litigation practice before the English courts. He has sector knowledge across a variety of industry sectors including financial services, technology, automotive, industrial goods, construction/building supplies and retail.

Nigel is consistently recognised in the Chambers and Legal 500 directories, as well as in the GCR Who's Who Legal: Competition guide.

The professional body for solicitors

Robert O'Donoghue QC, Barrister, Brick Court Chambers

Robert O'Donoghue QC has extensive experience of competition law, EU law, utility regulation, and related aspects of commercial and public law. He has appeared in major cases in the High Court, Competition Appeal Tribunal, Court of Appeal, Supreme Court, EU Courts, Irish courts, international arbitral bodies, and in oral hearings before competition authorities and sectoral regulators in these matters. He also frequently gives expert evidence on his areas of expertise in foreign courts and arbitral bodies, including in class actions in Canada and Israel, as well as litigation in Sweden. Whilst his practice focuses mainly on private clients, Robert also frequently acts for and advises public authorities within and outside the EU, including in Hong Kong, Australia, and Ireland. Robert is also a full member of the Brussels Bar, and so retains full rights of audience in the EU Courts and the courts of the EU Member States.

Ruchit Patel, Partner, Ropes & Gray

Ruchit Patel is an antitrust partner in the firm's London Office. Ruchit advises some of the largest companies in the world on matters before the European Commission, UK Competition and Markets Authority, UK sectoral regulators, UK High Court, He also has litigation experience before the UK Competition Appeal Tribunal. Ruchit also has significant experience advising clients on antitrust law matters in Asia. His clients include technology, financial services, private equity, healthcare companies, amongst others. In 2020, Ruchit was included in GCR's list of the top young antitrust lawyers in the world: the 40 under 40. Ruchit is also recognised in Chambers UK as an "up and coming" individual in the area of competition law, and Global Competition Review notes he is a "Future Leader".

Samantha Mobley, Partner, Baker McKenzie

Samantha Mobley is a partner in the EU, Competition & Trade Practice of Baker & McKenzie's London office and she is a member of the London office Management Committee. She headed the Baker & McKenzie's Global Antitrust and Competition Group, a team of over 300 competition and antitrust specialists worldwide for six years.

Samantha has extensive experience in all areas of EC and UK competition law including merger control and investigations. She regularly advises the boards of UK plcs in numerous industry sectors on antitrust compliance matters.

Sarah Cardell, General Counsel, Competition and Markets Authority

Sarah Cardell was appointed as General Counsel at the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) in September 2013. She heads the CMA's Legal Service which provides legal advice across the CMA's functions. She is also a member of the CMA's senior executive team and is the legal advisor to the CMA's Board.

Previous career highlights include:

- Partner in the Competition Group at Slaughter and May, where she advised across a wide range of EU and UK merger and antitrust cases.
- Legal Partner of the Markets Division at Ofgem, where her responsibilities included leading on competition law matters.

Satyen Dhana, Partner, Simmons & Simmons

Satyen is a Partner and head of the Simmons & Simmons Competition, Antitrust & Trade group. He is also a co-chair of the Simmons & Simmons race and ethnicity network, EMerge.

Professor Sean Ennis, CCP Director and Professor of Competition Policy Centre for Competition Policy and Norwich Business School University of East Anglia, Norwich Research Park

Sean Ennis has extensive experience in competition law and policy. From 2003-2018, he was a Senior Economist in the Competition Division of the OECD. For two years during this time, he served as Executive Director of the Competition Commission of Mauritius, where he was the chief executive in charge of running an independent competition authority. Prior to 2003 he worked as an economist at the European Commission's DG Competition and at the U.S. Department of Justice's Antitrust Division, developing economic analyses for competition law investigations. Sean has published research studies and reports and provided capacity building related to a broad range of business activities (including regulated industries, digitalisation, financial and professional services, communications, media and health care). He has presented expert views to the European Parliament and the UK Parliament. His studies or statements have been submitted to or published by economics journals and organisations such as the G20, the European Parliament, the OECD and the World Bank.

The Law
Society

He has co-authored or overseen reports for regulatory and government agencies in Australia, Greece, Mexico, Romania, the United Kingdom and the United States.

He has been involved in competition law and regulatory proceedings including with the European Commission, the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Communications Commission.

Steven Salop, Professor of Economics and Law, Georgetown University Law Centre, Washington, DC

Steven Salop is a Professor of Economics and Law at the Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, DC, where he teaches antitrust law and economics and a Senior Consultant to Charles River Associates. His research and consulting focuses on antitrust, competition, and regulation. He has written numerous articles in various areas of antitrust and competition which take a modern "Post-Chicago" approach, including a number of articles on vertical mergers and other exclusionary conduct. Professor Salop earned a BA degree at University of Pennsylvania, Summa Cum Laude and an M.Phil. and PhD in Economics from Yale University.

The professional body for solicitors