

Junior Lawyers Division annual conference Programme

09:45 – 10:15	Registration and refreshments	Reading Room
10:15 – 10:30	Welcome address Speakers: Amy Clowrey, chair, Junior Lawyers Division, The Law Society; Simon Davis, vice president, The Law Society	Common Room
10:30 – 11:00	Keynote address: Modern superheroes don't wear capes Speaker: Dana Denis-Smith, founder, First 100 Years project and CEO, Obelisk Support	Common Room
11:00 – 11:30	SRA standards and regulations 2019: What the JLD needs to know Speaker: Paul Bennett, partner, Bennett Briegal LLP	Common Room
11:30 – 12:15	Managing bullying and harassment in the work place Speakers: Elizabeth George, partner and head of employment, Pattinson & Brewer; Kieran Pender, legal adviser, Legal Policy and Research Unit, International Bar Association	Common Room
12:15 – 12:30	Refreshment break and exhibition	Reading Room
12:30 – 13:15	How to stay resilient and maintain your wellbeing in our 24/7 connected world Speaker: Laura Willis, co-founder, Shine Offline	Common Room
13:15 – 14:00	Buffet lunch and exhibition	Reading Room
	13:45 – 14:00 Volunteering and supporting the advice sector (optional session) Speaker: Laura Cassidy, fundraising and development manager, Access to Justice Foundation	Common Room
14:00 – 14:45	Breakout session A Please see the reverse of your name badge for a reminder of your pre-selected workshop sessions.
	A1. Millennial lawyers: Working off the beaten track Looking at new opportunities within the legal sector to develop your career Speaker: Nikolai Cedraeus, legal counsel, Dentsu Aegis Network	Common Room

Continued overleaf...

	A2. Calling time on timesheets: a new way of working How removing charging for time can benefit you, your colleagues, your organisation and, most importantly, your clients Speaker: Tania Tandon, founder, Tandon Hildebrand	Bell
	A3. Politics and the law Politics and the law and the relationship between the two Speakers: Jessica Lee, barrister, 1GC Family Law; Kate O'Rourke MBE, partner and head of Trade Mark Development, Mewburn Ellis and chair, Society of Labour Lawyers	Strand
14:45 – 14:50	Transition
14:50 – 15:35	Breakout session B
	B1. Making an impact: pro bono Speakers: Martin Barnes, chief executive, LawWorks; Tony Fisher, senior partner and head of commercial department, Fisher Jones Greenwood LLP Liz Fisher-Frank, lecturer and law clinic supervisor, Essex University	Strand
	B2. Aiming higher (rights) A panel session looking at the benefits of higher rights and how to obtain them Speakers: Roy Morgan, Higher Court advocate and lead advocacy trainer, Kaplan Altior; Michael Situ, solicitor advocate, Lincolns Solicitors Adam Tear, solicitor advocate and partner, Hodge Jones and Allen and chair, Society of Higher Right Court Advocates (SAHCA)	Bell
	B3. Future proofing your finances The value of effective finance planning Speaker: Jason Powell, senior financial consultant, Wesleyan	Common room
15:35 – 15:50	Refreshment break and exhibition	Reading room
15:50 – 16:35	Legaltech, algorithms and justice The impact of legaltech and influence of algorithms in the justice system Speakers: Griff Ferris, legal and policy adviser, Big Brother Watch; Jacob Turner, barrister, Fountain Court Chambers and author, Robot Rules: Regulating Artificial Intelligence	Common room
16:35 – 16:45	Closing remarks Speaker: Charlotte Parkinson, vice chair, Junior Lawyers Division, The Law Society	Common room